January Program – Yard Sale

Ok ladies let's get ready for a big yard sale for our January guild meeting.

As you are putting away your sewing supplies to prepare for the holidays pack up those items you will never use again.

If you are like me, you can't remember why you bought some of them or how they are used. Maybe someone else could use them.

What about patterns, books or material that no longer inspires you? Do you have UFOs someone else might like to finish?

Maybe you want to re-gift something you received for Christmas. Do you have more quilt kits than you can finish in your lifetime? The only requirement is that items must be sewing/quilting related. Have each item priced and be prepared to make change.

Buyer should bring cash. 10% of sales will be donated to the guild.

Chat with the President

Happy Holidays! With Thanksgiving just past, the holiday season is upon us! Down with the Fall decorations and up with Christmas lights!

Congratulations to all the winners of the Quilt show! Again, it was a great show with many attendees, according to the museum. At our Nov guild meeting, we showcased all the 1st Place Ribbon winners. Each winner spoke about the creation of their quilts.

Our 2022 Board members were elected at the Nov. guild meeting.

Carolyn Gibbons

If you have any completed outreach projects, please bring them to the December meeting.

In January, I will ask for your suggestions for community outreach, so be thinking!!!

Susan Congdon enjoyed a week- long visit with her sister, Regina Arlauckas from Churchville, NY. In between taking in both the Aiken and North Augusta quilt shows, lunching with friends and heading up to the Clemson area to visit family, Susan was able to guide Regina in the construction of a Basket Lattice quilt top. Regina put in the last stitches just ten minutes before heading to CPQ's November meeting! What a fun and productive week!!
