Lucy's List of Upcoming Programs

October brings Nancy Teal with her trunk show of amazing antique quilts. Unfortunately, I will be in New York and will miss viewing these beauties...so please take a lot of pictures.

November is reserved for Pat Kaufman and the quilt show committee.

We will end the year with a holiday gathering in December. Food and gift sharing, a nice way to end our year. Sign-up sheets for food items will be available at the November meeting.

Carolina Pine Quilters 39th Annual Quilt Show Aiken County Historical Museum November 5-23, 2019

Thanks to all who participated in quilt registration. We look forward to displaying your creation at the 2019 Carolina Pine Quilters Quilt Show. The next step is the take-in of your quilts on October 27 from 2:00 – 5:00pm and October 28 from 11:00 am – 2:00 pm at the museum. Entries will be judged on Wednesday, October 30 beginning at 9:00 am. In preparation for the opening of our show on November 5, quilts will be hung on Saturday, November 2, and, if needed, Monday, November 4.

Help is still needed for taking in quilts (contact Paula Brown); scribing for judging the quilts (contact June Yarborough); hanging quilts (contact Diane Miller); and taking down the quilts (contact Susan Renegar). Remember to mark your calendars for the quilt show reception on November 10 from 2:30 – 4:30 pm. If you are able to help with refreshments, contact Kerry DalSanto.

Thanks in advance for your help!

December 9 – Holiday gathering

CPQ – December Program / Holiday Party
Monday, December 9, 2019

Be sure to put Monday, December 9, on your calendar because you won't want to miss the annual CPQ holiday celebration! Details were discussed at the September meeting and include:

- A holiday food table with finger foods of both sweet and savory treats, veggies, fruit, cheese/crackers, etc. Sign-up sheets will be available in November. The guild will provide beverages, paper products and door prizes. Due to limited space, we will not be able to accommodate crockpots or electrical devices.
- Members also agreed to a gift exchange of a small hand-made item such as a mug-rug, pin cushion, placemat, needle keeper, or holiday ornament. Be creative! Please SIGN and WRAP your gift item.
- We would love to have all members participate in the gift exchange as this is such a wonderful expression of friendship with fellow quilters. Questions and suggestions should be directed to Peggy Hazell, Hospitality.

Donna and Gary Davis attended this year's Asheville NC Quilt Show on Sept. 29. This is a very nice three day show with 375 quilts on display, a nice selection of vendors and special activities each day. The first 375 quilts entered are accepted for display and the contest. Cash prizes are awarded to the first three places in each category. The drive is about 3-1/2 hours from Aiken.

Donna's Harvest Garden quilt took second place in her category. Gary's Ornerly Quilt received a special Merit award for "Snarkiness"! We traveled there, took in the show and came back on the same day. It was a fun day.

At the September guild meeting, Gerry White spoke about how adding pieced borders helps frame, enhance, or enlarge a quilt in more interesting ways rather than simply adding plain borders. Here are some of the quilts she brought to show. For more information on Gerry's quilts, go to
