Program News

Candace Hassen will be our speaker at the October guild meeting. She is from Porterdale, GA and is an independent quilt pattern designer. Her trunk show program is called Inspiration. She has 20 large quilts to show, and most are bed sized. She shares how she got the idea to make each one, along with the strategies she used throughout the process to stay organized.

Hope to see you there!

Happy Fall! I am looking forward to cooler temperatures, however we are not experiencing them now, (since it is still Sept at this writing). With all the damage on the coast, I can deal with the warm weather.

I hope everyone is getting their quilts done for the show. Since Sept was National Sewing Month, I took the suggestion to retreat to my sewing room and finish the projects that I have started, including some for our show. We will have a special section at the quilt show for the Dresden Plate wall hanging, Understanding the Rainbow. Can't wait to see how this pattern will reflect each one's color choices.

Our quilt show is Nov. 2 - 20, 2021. This year's theme is Pandemic Pastime. Deadline for registration is Sept 22. All this information, including the registration form, is on our CPQ web page.

The preparations for the quilt show are underway. A reminder: drop off your quilts at the museum on Oct 24 from 2-5pm or Oct 25, 11-2pm. Please include a picture of the item on your pillowcase. Hanging the quilts will be Sat Oct 30 at 10am.

We will have only 1 day for you to pick up your items at the museum after the show, Sunday Nov. 21 from 3:30-5pm. Ask a friend to pick up your items if you are not able to do so yourself. Please have your receipt with you on Sunday.

Happy quilting! See you in October.

Barb

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. We will be focusing on making Lydia Bags, Bosom Buddies and comfort pillows. I will have kits and directions for all of these items, and we will work at the museum from 1-4:30 on the Tuesday after our regular meeting. The Museum is allowing us to use the room without charge. Please consider putting a little something in the donation box. Even $1 helps.

In November we will not have a Sit and Sew because of the quilt show, so remember to bring in your placemats in November. We will vote on them with $$$$ and all of the proceeds will go to Meals on Wheels.

I have several ideas for projects for next year and I will tell you about them later but would welcome any suggestions for other projects that would benefit our community. I am open to new ideas and new projects.
