Upcoming Programs

Lucy Bureau

September Program – The September program will be fun. I look forward to hearing the Fringe Sisters talk about their creative process as a group and individually. They enjoy mixed media among other styles of quilting. I look forward to seeing you all there.

October Program -- Tommy Litner will talk about sewing machine tension, needles, thread and give maintenance tips.

November Program -- Celebration of Quilts from CPQ Show

December Program -- Holiday gathering

Congratulations!

Donna Davis, whose Baskets of Beauties quilt won first place in last year's CPQ quilt show, has had her quilt accepted into the Fall 2018 AQS show in Paducah, Kentucky. Her quilt will be judged along with 300 others for category and overall awards.

As a creature of habit, it was fun to deviate from our normal meeting structure at our August meeting and focus on a hodge podge of activities and topics. The FREE table set-up was extensive and saw robust activity both before and after the formal meeting. Donna and Gary Davis were thrilled that so many items found new homes where they will eventually be transformed into components for future quilts.

Business matters were concluded quickly with the election of the 2019 CPQ board, and a short preview of activity highlights for the year ahead. More conversation on these topics will be provided in our fall newsletters.

The big focus of the evening was the presentation of the Challenge Quilts. As you may recall, seven months ago Lucy Bureau announced that the theme of the 2018 challenge would be using a traditional quilt block in a non-traditional manner. With that spark, numerous CPQ members started thinking, designing, sewing, and quilting. The challenge quilts will be featured prominently at our 2018 Quilt Show so make sure to mark your calendars. In the meantime..... keep on quilting.

Outreach

Annamarie Gorenssek

Hello quilters! Thank you to everyone who has participated in the outreach service projects this year. We will continue to accept pillowcases for Pruitt Health Care. Please consider making one for this project. I would like to have 176, one for every resident in the nursing home. The body is 27" by width of fabric and the top is 10" by width of fabric.

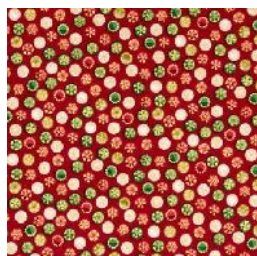

Our final challenge for the year is a placemat challenge for Meals on Wheels.

The placemats are due at the November meeting. We will vote for our favorite placemat by placing a dollar in the bag. The money raised will go to Meals on Wheels. I will also accept placemats at the December meeting.

The Rules:

-The challenge fabric must appear somewhere in the placemat. How much or how little you use is your choice. I will have the fabric at the September meeting. The fabric used for the project is Traditional Metallic Bauble Spot by the Henley Studio #1794. As of this writing, fabric.com had 5 yards left. Their item number is 0477970. There is also some available at other internet quilt stores.

-Do not use any embellishments that are raised -- drinking glasses could be overturned.

-Flannel is the best fabric to use as a batting.

Have fun and happy quilting.

Festival of Trees Roll-Out

CPQ's July meeting had an unexpected twist. Our meeting room was inundated by a shipment of table top Christmas trees looking for homes where they can be lovingly decorated in time to participate in our holiday Festival of Trees program.

The December 10th guild meeting will feature the Festival of Trees auction with proceeds benefiting the CPQ fund for programs and workshops. The event will be facilitated by two auctioneers intent on keeping us entertained and focused on escalating competitive bidding.

Trees are still available for adoption at the September guild meeting or by contacting Pat Jones at pcjones001@gmail.com.

Beginners Introduction to Quilting

Are you new to quilting or looking to learn the fundamentals of quilt construction? If so, check out Introduction to Quilting offered by Jean Ridley. This course covers the basics of accurately cutting fabric strips, sewing a 1/4" seam, piecing techniques, assembling the quilt sandwich, quilting, and binding. You will create a baby size quilt with an approximate size of 40" x 52".

Jean offers instruction on a complimentary basis but welcomes donations. Classes are scheduled as groups of 2-3 students are assembled. Students will need to bring their own sewing machine, thread, fabric, rotary cutter and cutting mat. The course consists of five 3-hour classes.

If interested, contact Jean at forhomeschool@bellsouth.net or 803-507-8223.

'Bling' for your Quilt

Join quilter, Linda Barrett-Hanslip, on Oct. 13 for a workshop on adding 'BLING' to your projects. It will be held at North Augusta's Fairview Presbyterian Church from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm. Lecture, trunk show and hands-on. Sponsored by American Sewing Guild.

Details and registration sheets will be available at the September meeting. Call Cheri Dowd at 644-0576 for earlier registration.

Aiken Office Supply posted our thank-you card next to the Micron Pigma pens we ordered.

FOR SALE

I have a large quilters folding cutting table on wheels with two drawers. I will include the full size mat and full table width cutting ruler, all in excellent condition.

My asking price is $55.

High Fives for the Donna Royson Trunk Show

Attendees at the July meeting were treated to a trunk show by Donna Royson. Her quilting journey began with a focus on machine embroidery and eventually led her to pursue training to become a certified Eleanor Burns Instructor. Her trunk show featured a treasure trove of quilts based on patterns from Eleanor's Quilt in a Day company.

The Hole in the Wall pattern was interesting for its prominent center squares that are ideal for showcasing fussy cut specialty fabrics. Hexagons were the star of the Honeycomb pattern, and the Zig a Zag pattern ideal of quilters interested in fast execution using jelly rolls. The Lamoyne Star pattern was particularly interesting as it had the overall appearance of a hunter star quilt but employs construction techniques that avoid the use of "Y" seams. The Opposites Attract pattern was shown in three different layouts including a brown/green combination, a yellow leftovers design, and a small baby quilt of multi colored pastel fabrics on a white background. Many of the patterns had an Easy rating and are well suited to beginning quilters. For more information, check out www.quiltinaday.com.

CPQ "Flash Mob" Texas Style

By Susan Congdon

This November several Carolina Pine Quilters will be among the thousands of quilters attending the International Quilt Festival in Houston. Some of us will be part of organized tour groups; others are attending on their own. How fun would it be if we could meet up for a quick visit to compare notes and have a quick photo op? So we can synchronize our schedules, please let me know if you will be in attendance. We'll be sure to share our photo and a brief report of our fun with the rest of you when we get back!

Kerry Dalsanto shared this photo of a centerpiece in the gift shop at Red Rocks Park and Amphitheatre in Colorado.

It was wonderful to see such a nice turn out of Challenge Quilts! I enjoyed all of them! There was some creative interpretations of many traditional blocks such as flying geese, nine patch, pinwheels, double t, log cabin, hole in the barn door, red school house, maple leaf, to name a few. The challenge quilts are at the center of our show theme. Thank you to all who participated. The intent is to broaden our creative skills by seeing and thinking of things differently. Hopefully you all walked away learning something new and feeling good about your accomplishment!
