

Carolina Pine Quilters Meeting Minutes

September 9, 2019

Meeting Called: Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by Vice President Lucy Bureau .

Attendance: 48 members and 1 guest, Sallie Mahan.

Cares and Concerns: Donna Holman gave update on husband with leukemia.

Door Prize Winners: A book from teacher Diane Knott went to Sherry Hodge, Sulky Adhesive went to Judy Nightingale.

Business: Gary Davis (Nominating Committee) noted there is still an open board position for Vice President of Programs. There are six people already volunteered for the Program Committee.

Committee Reports:

Membership: 2 new members last month.

Community Outreach: Plaid fabric is available for backing Christmas placemats to be donated to Meals on Wheels. See Carolyn Gibbons.

Quilt Show: Sept. 22-23 quilt registration forms will be received at the museum. Quilts will be taken in on October 28. Judging will be held October 30, and hanging on November 2, take-down and pick-up on November 24. Sign-up sheets are available for members to help and also for reception.

Comfort Quilts: Diane Miller presented to Betty Yates whose husband passed. Kits are always available for blocks.

Other: The Aiken Center for the Arts is having another block printing class.

Program: Gerry White, "Pieced Borders"

Show & Tell: Tia Cochnauer, Tee Shirt Quilt, Sandy Walther, Connie Mock, baby chicks, Donna Holman, Donna Yeskey, Betty Yates, Betty Mihoulides, bear from Super Saturday, Anne Marie Gorensek

Meeting Adjourned: 8:15

Respectfully submitted: Margot Salzman, Secretary