Chat with the President

Barb Saporito

October was a very busy month. Finishing quilts for our quilt show, getting ready for the quilt show and attending the Quilters of SC retreat/fall meeting at Myrtle Beach. This was the first year I attended and I had a great time. Offered at the retreat were 1 day, 2 day and 3 day classes. I participated in the 3 day class taught by Susan Congdon. Most everyone finished at least 1-2 rows of their projects in this class. I highly recommend attending the next retreat/meeting in Oct. 2024. Joining QSC is only $20.00 for 1 year.

At our November 13 guild meeting, we will be turning in and voting for the placemats that we all have been creating. When arriving at the meeting, please help to hang them on the display boards. We will be voting for your favorite placemats with a dollar bill to be placed in the envelopes. The more placemats you vote for, more dollars to be given to Meals on Wheels. Bring your dollars!!

Our annual quilt show opened Tuesday Oct 31 and our quilts will be on display until Nov. 17. Please bring your friends and family to our wonderful show and vote for your favorite quilt. We will be having a slide show of the winning quilts at our guild meeting this month.

At our Dec.11 guild meeting, we will be celebrating the Holidays. Please bring sweets and/or finger foods for all to enjoy. Also, along with any ugly holiday sweater you wear, you may include ugly earrings. We have a month to create those earrings.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving.

QUILT SHOW

Our quilt show is in full swing. Congratulations to all the winners. A list can be found attached to this newsletter and posted to our website. Thanks to everyone for your beautiful creations! Without you our show wouldn't fill the museum. Also, a big thank you to my wonderful committee and all the volunteers who have helped with every aspect of the show. Please be sure to stop by the Aiken County Historical Museum through November 17 to view our show.

MUSEUM GIFT SHOP

It's time to think about Christmas items for the museum store. To the right is a picture of what I took the last time. They would like more of the round Christmas balls, microwave bowl cozies with Christmas fabric, more burlap ornaments (can't remember who made those, they are so cute!). Quilted ornaments like the trees in the bottom of the picture. Any type of small bag made from Christmas fabric that would hold 2 small jelly jars. Bring what you have to the next guild meeting, and I'll continue to collect items after that. Thanks so much for making items to help put our quilt show in the black!

Welcome New Members

CPQ welcomed three new members at our September meeting:

Delores Mansell, Mary Strine and Gayle Ferguson.

Gayle has recently moved to Aiken from Reidsville, NC and learned about our guild at the last quilt show. She learned quilting as a child from her grandmothers and loves hand quilting.

QUILTERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

CPQ had a great representation at this year's Pieceable Retreat. There were over 175 attendees of which 18 were from our guild. We enjoyed great classes, bring your own projects, catered lunch and dinner, a door prize for everyone and of course the sunshine and beach! Mark your calendars for the QSC spring meeting March 9, 2024 in Camden, SC.
