Program News

Annmarie Gorensek

May Program – Creations from the indigo dyeing class led by Linda Williamson on May 4th will be featured in our May program. Workshop participants will share their dyed pieces with us.

June Program – Christmas in July...a month early. Last year's ornaments were a hit with both our members and the museum gift shop. This year, we will be doing a pinecone. We're looking for fabric to make these ornaments. If you have any Christmas fabric you would be willing to donate, please bring it to the May meeting. We are looking for reds, greens, whites, and golds.

July Program – Trunk show by Becky Erdman.

Upcoming Workshop – Becky will be back on Saturday, July 27th to do a thread painting workshop. The cost will be $35, which will include the thread kit. A supply list will be given to you upon payment of the workshop fee. Sign-ups will begin at the May meeting.

The Quilt Show is 6 months away and I only have 9 months of work left to do on my entry. I hope you are all working diligently.

Our first Quilt Show Committee meeting was held this month. There is a need for volunteers to help the various chairpersons. My co-chair for Quilt Take In has decided to abandon me to go to Japan! So, I'm looking for a co-chair on Oct 13 and 14. It is fun and you get to be the first to see all the quilts. I'm not the only one who needs help, so if you aren't available to help me, please volunteer to help someone else.

Another Quilt Show related issue is that we are looking for some fund-raising ideas. We spend a large portion of our yearly budget on the show. If we can supplement our budget, it helps us to be able to do other things like workshops.

I watched a bunch of You Tube quilt videos when I was sick. There are some good videos about some of the larger quilt shows. They feature some cool new products and amazing quilts. If you love cool tools or if you need inspiration, you may enjoy checking them out.

Be kind.

Tony
