Program News

Annamarie Gorenssek

July Program – Trunk show with Becky Erdman.

July 27 -- Thread painting with Becky Erdman. The cost is $35 payable to Annmarie at the July meeting. There are still 2 spots available for this workshop held in our usual meeting space. See Annmarie for the supply list.

August Program – Garage Sale. Start cleaning out that sewing room!

September Program – Quilt challenge display and voting. Vote with dollar bills. Money collected will go to offset the cost of the quilt show.

I hope you all are going through your stash to see what to sell at Antiques Road Show in August. Oops, I meant the Carolina Pine Quilters Garage Sale! Bring lots of money, there are always some great buys. We had a large stash of fabric donated to the Guild which will be for sale with all proceeds to the Guild. I have sorted it all by size and the prices will be irresistible.

We need toiletries for our bags which we donate to the homeless. Don't forget ladies' sanitary items. Just think about what you would want if access to a nice bathroom with all the amenities wasn't available to you. We spend a fortune on fabric etc, so it is nice to spend a bit on someone else. The Dollar Store is an inexpensive source for these items.

September is just around the corner with our Challenge reveal. I hope you have something wonderful In Your Garden.

Be kind.

Tony

Ornament Bows Hint

I really enjoyed making the ornaments at our June meeting, but I discovered I am a Bow Bimbo! I just could not make bows that I thought were pretty enough to top the ornaments. After a lot of online searching and experimenting, I found a site that offers a FREE bow template, sized specifically for ornaments. I thought some of you might be interested, too. To download the template, you will have to supply your email address and first name.

Quilt Guild members are invited to attend the American Sewing Guild meeting at 10 am on July 8th. It will be held at the Episcopal Church on 1630 Silver Bluff Rd. The guest speaker will be Tonya Rucicci. She is a free spirit quilter who enjoys designing her own way and adding words and letters to her work. She is living in the Augusta area and has taught at Augusta Sewing Center. Her program will be a display and narrative about her quilts. Join us and enjoy!

2024 Quilt Show and Museum Sales

Donna Holman

Quilt Show

The 2024 quilt show will run from Tuesday, October 22 - Friday, November 15. This year's theme/challenge will be "In My Garden." This can include floral quilts, floral fabric, birds, bugs, gnomes, etc. Use your imagination. Any quilt can be entered in the show, not just those that apply to our theme. Challenge quilts are specific to when we bring them to the guild meeting and vote for the best one. Our website, carolinapinequilters.org, has been updated with this year's information, registration form and category listing. Deadline for registration is September 13.

Museum Store

The Museum Store is currently looking for jewelry pouches and SMALL fabric gift bags (think something to hold a jar of jelly or candle). Also, they have a Christmas corner all year round so they welcome the Christmas ball ornaments. Just bring your donations to the next meeting and I'll get them to the museum store. Thanks for your hard work!

QUILTERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Registration for the 2024 Pieceable Retreat, October 24-27 at Myrtle Beach, is now open. If you're a member, you should have received an email with all the details. If you're not a member, check out quiltersofsc.org for all the information. Quilters of SC is open to anyone in any state. It's a great way to meet up with friends and take classes or bring your own project at a beautiful oceanfront location. Register early to get the class you want. There are plenty of wonderful classes to choose from.
