President’s Chatter . . . .continued

With the arrival of cold weather I hope that you have had an opportunity to turn your creative thoughts inward and that your sewing machine is beginning to get a daily workout. On the home front, I used the extended holiday period to complete paper piecing of a queen sized quilt using Diane Knott’s Razmattazz pattern and my vintage village quilt from our spring workshop. With my open projects complete I now turn my gaze to a fresh project utilizing a Minick and Simpson pattern called Miss Monroe’s Four Patch. A traditional pattern that is set on point and it provides an opportunity to test out a treasure trove of new fabric in a summer color palette of French blues, off whites and a touch of green.

Nothing like a fresh start to begin a new year. See you at Asian Odyssey in February and in the meantime...keep on quilting.

Pat

President’s Chatter

Pat Jones

It was such fun seeing so many smiling faces at our January meeting and having the opportunity to welcome aboard our new leadership team. We had a nice turnout to see the Quilters Gallery exhibit by Dorothy Mock and listen to the road map presentation for 2019 guild activities. Once again Lucy Bureau put her creative talents to work and created a design challenge, Oceans of Thought, that has appeal to both art and traditional quilters.

Several guild members joined Lucy Bureau at the Aiken Art Center for a class on block making and printing on fabric. Aidan Cooke was the instructor and did an awesome job in explaining and guiding us through the process of carving blocks to use in two color printing. During the last class multiple stations were set up with different colors of fabric ink and there was much sharing of ideas as the prints were created and shown off. Such fun was had that Aidan is planning to offer another class later this spring - let Lucy know if you're interested in joining us!

Carolina Pine Quilters 2019 Road Map for Activities and Operations

The January 14th meeting of the guild featured a presentation by Pat Jones on the priorities and game plan for guild activities in 2019. Highlights are outlined below:

Programs and Workshops:

1. We have scheduled a robust year of programs featuring speakers on Asian design, history of batiks, new quilting techniques, mosaic quilts, free motion quilting, thread work, and antique quilts.
2. The 2019 programs listing can be found on the CPQ website.
3. Workshops, in addition to the monthly programs, will be offered in April, June, and September.
4. Super Saturday will take place on August 17th.
5. Asian Odyssey with June Colburn will take place on February 11 & 12. There are three lectures over two days and details can be found in the Asian Odyssey article in this newsletter or under 2019 programs on the website.
6. The October meeting will feature a bed turning of antique quilts from the collection of Nancy Teal.
7. Programs at monthly meetings are free of charge to guild members. Offsite lectures and Super Saturday will have a $10 fee and workshops will cost $45.

Monthly Meetings:

Quilters Gallery will continue its rotating exhibit of quilts. If you have not already displayed your work in this forum, please contact Barb Saporito to schedule a date for 2019.

In addition to the hospitality desk you will also frequently see information tables setup by 6:30 prior to the start of meetings. The goal is to facilitate information dissemination and exchange with members and to provide opportunities to pre-register for future workshops.

Community Service:

Debbie Phillips is our lead for community service for 2019 and the kick-off project is fidget quilts. At our February 11th guild meeting, Debbie will have a table set-up by 6:30 with free fabric for use in these quilts. This will also provide an opportunity for members to view a sample fidget quilt created by Jean Ridley and brainstorm design ideas with fellow quilters.

Monthly Newsletter:

The newsletter will continue to be edited and published by Karen Erickson and distributed electronically to members the first week of each month. If you are interested in writing articles or taking photos, please contact Pat Jones at pcjones001@gmail.com.

CPQ Fundraising for 2019:

This year's fundraiser will be a Tour of Studios taking place on Saturday, March 16th from 1 - 5pm. Featured studios include Diane Miller, Sherry Hodge, Paula Brown and Karen Erickson.

Tour tickets are priced at $20 and will be available for advance purchase at the February and March guild meetings. Payment by cash or check will be accepted and all proceeds will benefit the guild.

Tour organizer is Becky Carter and assisted by Marcy Huggins.

Guild Administration:

Pat Jones will continue to minimize the time impact of business matters at guild meetings. Look for administrative information in the monthly newsletter or email Pat directly, pcjones001@gmail.com, to ask for additional information.

Guild finances are in good shape. We started 2018 with $6,353.10 and ended the year with $5,625.54 even though we had a strong year of programs, two workshops, and a quilt show.

CPQ By the Numbers

2018 was a busy year for Carolina Pine Quilters. We continue to see growth in guild membership and had a strong year of monthly programs and workshops.
