President's Chatter

Barb Saporito

Happy New Year one and all!!

I hope your Holidays were joyous and you were able to spend time with family and friends.

I am looking forward to 2020 CPQ activities. We are in the planning stages for celebrating our 35th year of CPQ. Once we have our activities secured, we will post what we will be planning each month.

Stay tuned, it will be a great year!

Quilters New Year Resolution

My 2020 New Year's Resolution is to finish all the quilt projects from 2019 that I should have done in 2018 after I started them in 2017 after planning them in 2016 and buying the fabric for them in 2015 while having the pattern for them since 2014.

Granny's Quilt Fabric and More
1108 Argent Boulevard
Ridgeland, SC 29936

A different idea for a quilt label –

Make a smaller version of a block in the quilt, line it and applique it to the back of the quilt as a pocket, using a Velcro dot as a fastener at the open end. Write your name and date in permanent ink on the quilt under the pocket and write other information you want to share on paper or cloth and place it inside the pocket.

If the new year finds you on the road to the coast make sure to take a detour to Granny's Quilt Fabric and More in Ridgeland, SC. For Aiken based quilters this shop is on the way to Bluffton and Hilton Head and worth a stop. The shop is a nice size and has a good selection of fabric, including batiks, and notions.
