Program News

Marolyn Floyd

Anita Bowen from Columbia will be our guest lecturer at our June 14 meeting.

Her lecture is titled "Potholes, Roadblocks and Detours." Anita is a popular teacher at Quilters of South Carolina retreats and she brings a lot of enthusiasm to her lectures and classes. Her most popular class has been "Galaxy Stars" as shown below.

Chat with the President

Barb Saporito

Our May guild meeting featured a Quilts of Valor presentation by Anne Mixon. What an appropriate presentation, being that close to Memorial Day. Anne became involved with QOV in 2011.

QOV began in 2003 by Catherine Roberts whose son was deployed in Iraq. Her dream was Quilts = Healing. Every quilt for QOV is awarded to a Service Member or Veteran who has been touched by war. It says, "thank you for your service and sacrifice in serving our nation". Anne had quilt kits available for members to make, and some smaller kits to sew stars used for future quilts.

In May, Columbia State House steps were covered with Quilts of Valor (see page 3.) Some quilts also were awarded to Veterans, who served in the military. To become involved with this opportunity, check out Quilts of Valor on the web.

Our August meeting will feature speaker Lee Chappell Monroe. On Tuesday, August 10, she will have a workshop at Trinity UMC. Please sign up for the workshop, Understanding the Rainbow, at our June meeting.

Check CPQ web page for future speakers.

Enjoy the summer days. Stay cool and keep quilting.

FOR SALE –

I am a past member of the guild and have given up sewing. I have a Bernina 1530 inspiration machine in an oak cabinet (I think it is a Koala cabinet) with extended table. The machine comes with all accessories and specialty feet, lots of extra bobbins, etc., a real work horse. Price is $350.

At our house, quilting shows come on our TV quite often. At some point, I began to notice the variety and colorful nature of the words people used to describe fabric, patterns, quilts, etc. Below are some of these. They are actual words people used on TV. I am not making this up. This list might be useful to us ordinary quilters when we describe our fabric or pattern finds or quilts or other projects. Examples may include when talking to others on the phone, at guild meetings, at workshops, during Show and Tell sessions, for quilt show entry write-ups, for presentations, etc.

Quilts of Valor covered the SC State House on Sunday, May 23, 2021

Our May lecturer, Anne Mixon, spearheaded this endeavor and several people in our guild had a hand in making, quilting and binding some of them.

Lee Chappell Monroe Workshop

by Annmarie Gorensek

Our August speaker will be Lee Chappell Monroe. She is the owner and designer of May Chappell Patterns and a trained graphic designer. She is also a Bernina Ambassador and Craftsy instructor. Lee is a member of the Triad Modern Quilt Guild in Winston Salem, NC.

Lee will present her fabulous lecture on “Understanding the Rainbow” along with a trunk show at our August meeting. On Tuesday, August 10, we will continue to explore color and selecting color at a six- hour workshop. We will be making a color wheel using your favorite fabrics. Class is limited to 18 quilters.

Cost of the workshop is $40 plus $12 for the pattern. Wouldn't a color wheel display at the quilt show be superb? I will give the complete supply list when you have registered. Sign-ups will begin at the June meeting.
